

Can you guess which Bachelorette will win Aaron's heart? Patti Wood examines both choices in conversation with Aaron. See this in "UsWeekly", November 25, 2002.

Us Body-Language expert Patti Wood speaks out

HELENE & AARON

"They are unusually far apart. Look at his smile – it's strained," observes Wood. "He's protecting himself by putting his hand in a blocking position. She has her arms crossed, also protecting herself. And she has a fearful smile rather than an open, relaxed one."

BROOKE & AARON

"They are closer [than Aaron and Helene]," says Wood. "But she is protected from his advance: Both her arms are being used as a barrier, and her legs are crossed away from him. He has his legs open; this is a highly sexual pose. He's a conquest guy."
