

Press Release

Where will you be the morning after the Oscars?

Pick up US magazine to read Patti Wood's body language analysis of Nicole Kidman, with and without Tom Cruise. Patti was asked to interpret eight photos and has some great insights that will be published in next week's cover story.

Listen to Star 94 (94.1 FM) in Atlanta at 7:35 a.m. E.S.T. Monday, March 25, during Steve & Vikki's show!

Patti Wood, owner of Communication Dynamics has been asked by Star 94 and twenty other radio stations around the world to interpret the stars' body language at the Oscars.

Patti says to watch for these cues and then listen for her answers:

SECRET CUES

1. Look at which person in the couple is in front. For example Russell Crow always leaves his date behind.
2. How far apart couples stand. Tom Hanks and his wife stand close and hold hands with their hearts pointed toward each other. Tom Cruise ALWAYS looks at the camera
3. Telling facial expressions. Denzel Washington -- jutting chin and pushed out lip-- if he is asked certain questions. Russell Crows displays anger.
4. Gestures that reveal. Halie Barry twitches nervously when she is alone and asked questions.

Patti will reveal what all of these cues mean on the air or at your request.

You probably know Patti as the best presentations skills trainer you ever met. Do you know she is known by the media as The Body Language Lady? She has the credentials -years of research and university teaching on nonverbal communication and multiple degrees in interpersonal and non-verbal communication.

The things she can see !!!!

It's fun and informative. AND, don't forget her if you need a speaker or trainer she has other communication programs for you.
